The Arts Network is a coalition of arts organizations in St. Tammany Parish, organized and administered by the St. Tammany Commission on Cultural Affairs.

The coalition comes together for the following purposes:

- To encourage cooperation and cooperative programming among arts organizations.
- To market the arts in St. Tammany cooperatively.
- To build a pool of trained volunteer leaders for the arts in St. Tammany.
- To enjoy fellowship.

Membership in The Arts Network is free, however, member organizations must meet certain obligations to retain membership:

- The President/CEO must attend mandatory membership meetings.
- A minimum of two members of the Boards of Directors must attend every leadership development workshop. (non-profit organizations)
- If your organization has a membership, your mailing list must be made available to the St. Tammany Commission on Cultural Affairs if you wish to participate in the cooperative marketing program.
- The list will not be sold or published. It will be used to promote the arts in St. Tammany by distribution of an Arts Network Newsletter (mailed out quarterly). Please submit your mailing list electronically in comma delimited format or as an Excel file.
- If you choose to participate in an endeavor requiring a cash contribution, all bills must be paid promptly.

Marketing Efforts Include:

- Free advertising in local newspapers.
- Free cable television public service announcement placement (for non-profit organizations).
- St. Tammany Parish Cultural Season Guide.
- Quarterly newsletter of the Arts Network.

Free Annual Leadership Development workshops.
